Wickenburg, AZ 85390

07:30 PM - 09:30 PM MT

Paden Lisk, 9286846624

plisk@dewpac.org

"Spamilton: An American Parody" is the fictitious story of a very famous writer/director/star trying to save Broadway from mediocrity and oblivion. Along the way, this sharp and lovable genius not only takes aim at Broadway's mega-hit but manages to make hysterical mincemeat out of many classic and new Broadway shows. Countless film and stage stars drop by to add to the fun and mayhem making this show a multi-generational delight for everyone!

Written by Gerard Alessandrini, the creator of the "Forbidden Broadway" series, the show humorously critiques the phenomenon of "Hamilton" and its cultural impact, while poking fun at other Broadway classics. The show is known for its witty and affectionate send-up of the musical theater world.

Commemorate America's 250th Birthday and the start of the Cactus League spring training games with sports photographer Jean Fruth and an intimate behind-the-lens look at the country's favorite pastime, baseball. As one of the few women to cover the Majors, Fruth brings a fresh perspective the field.

After capturing the attention of Major League Baseball with her front page-worthy shots, Fruth spent a decade covering the San Francisco Giants and Oakland Athletics. Named a Sony Artisan of Imagery, she built a storied career documenting the sport from youth games to professional pennant races around the world. Drawing on her extensive interviews with baseball legends, the all-women league that inspired the film "A League of Their Own," and the trailblazers of today, Fruth paints a vivid picture of the sport's rich history and exciting future.

Together with her partner, former Baseball Hall of Fame President Jeff Idelson, Fruth formed the non-profit organization Grassroots Baseball. She has produced three photography books: Grassroots Baseball: Where Legends Begin (2019), Grassroots Baseball: Route 66 (2022), and her most recent, Grassroots Baseball Women: See Her Be Her (2024). Jean's documentary SEE HER BE HER, follows the lives of women who are playing the game at its highest level in the US, Canada, Puerto Rico, Japan, South Korea, Cuba, and Uganda.

America loved the swinging sounds of female close-harmony groups even before The Andrews Sisters hit the airwaves. Audiences will hear those great vintage songs with fresh ears when this trio takes the stage! These New York City-based vocalists have performed across the USA at iconic spaces honoring our veterans (the Intrepid Air and Space Museum, the WASP Museum), as well as large theatres and intimate cabaret venues, getting crowds tapping their feet to hits like "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" as they celebrate history through their crystal-clear harmonies and colorful costumes.
